A plan was subsequently presented to the Board of Regents for the University.
The May, 2005 organizational minutes were approved as written.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT: Senator Glasser

Senator Glasser thanked Dr. Bruce MacLaren for continuing to provide leadership and vision to the Chautauqua lecture series. This year’s theme is “Questing and Questioning.” The first event was on September 8 with Dr. Ron Messerich. The next event is scheduled for Thursday, September 22.

Professor Mark Tushnet from Georgetown University will give a presentation entitled “The Rehnquist Court, the Roberts Nomination and the Future of Constitutional Law” in the Student Services Building Auditorium tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Frank McCourt, author of Angela’s Ashes, will be a guest speaker on Tuesday, September 13 in Brock Auditorium. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

September 15 is Higher Education Day, and EKU will be hosting the Higher Education Day Conference in the Perkins Building. This year’s theme is “Higher Education in Kentucky: Past, Present, and Future.” Governor Paul Patton will be one of the panelists. Senator Glasser thanked Dr. Joe Gershtenson for overseeing this project.

Senator Glasser announced that those victims of Hurricane Katrina who have already paid any type of tuition at any other institution of higher education will be permitted to study at EKU free of charge effective immediately. In addition, there are approximately 200 beds available in the residence halls for those students needing a place to stay. As of September 9, there are three undergraduate students and one graduate student enrolled. A hotline has also been established on campus for those students and faculty wanting additional information. This information is also accessible from the web site.

Senator Glasser announced that interested faculty who have been displaced by Hurricane Katrina will be invited to join our University community on a case-by-case basis--both short term and long term.

The EKU Community continues to show financial support for the hurricane victims by making donations to the American Red Cross and the Salvation Army.

At the start of the semester enrollment was up by 125 students compared to last year at the same time. At this point enrollment is up by 200 undergraduate students, and down by 60 graduate students.

EKU and WKU are currently developing a joint Ed.D. doctoral program. More information will be forthcoming in future meetings.
The gala kickoff for the centennial celebration and the capital comprehensive campaign will be on Friday, September 23 in the Fitness and Wellness Center. Everyone is invited to attend.

Senator Glasser stated that Eastern’s endowment has increased by $15 million over the past two years.

The campus-wide electrical project is more than 60% complete, and the Business and Technology Phase I is 75% complete. Architects have been selected for the new science building, for Phase II of the Business and Technology Center and for the new Manchester Center.

Homecoming and Parents Weekend is scheduled for Saturday, September 24.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT: Senator Siegel

Senator Siegel reported that all of the Senate motions approved by the Faculty-at-Large will go before the Board of Regents on October 5.

The Faculty Club is open every weekday morning from 8 to 9 a.m. for coffee. The Provost is there every Thursday morning, schedule permitting; and President Glasser leads the coffee chats on the third Thursday of each month. All faculty are encouraged to participate in the coffee chats.

The Executive Committee met on August 29. New representatives were appointed to several University Committees: Senator Flanagan, Arlington Board; Senator Hubbard, General Education; Senator Konkel, Withdrawal Committee; and Senator Shasby, Residency Appeals Committee.

There was a prolonged conversation of the faculty evaluation of the President's job performance. The Executive Committee will be working with an outside consultant who has been hired by the Board of Regents to implement an evaluation that will include all 530 full time faculty members, tenured and tenure-track. The deadline for completion will be sometime in November. Additional information will be forthcoming.

As Senate Chair, Senator Siegel participated in the United Way kickoff rally on September 6. Senator Siegel encouraged everyone to donate to the United Way fund.

Senator Siegel met today with Scott Amundsen, the new Academic Advising & Retention Director, the Provost and Associate Vice President Aaron Thompson to discuss the academic advising report.
The Senate and the Teaching and Learning Center will co-sponsor an open forum on Shared Governance on October 18th & 19th. More information will be forthcoming.

Senator Siegel distributed a number of committee charges. The Budget Committee will be looking at a proposal to give top merit producers the right of first refusal for summer school teaching. That committee will also look into the possibility of changing the class schedule pattern. In addition they will be looking at budget changes from last year to this year in particular to identify any areas of academic programs and faculty support that may need more attention.

The Committee on Committees will be developing a plan for recruiting more faculty self-nominations for University committees, and creating a more effective screening process.

The Elections Committee will be refining changes on how the Faculty Senate May elections are run and will come to the Senate with a proposal for making these changes more permanent. They will also be developing a process for electing a Faculty Senate Vice Chair in November.

Rights and Responsibilities will be reviewing the proposed new academic integrity policy and process and will also consider changes in the Faculty Handbook to provide options for online electronic copies of syllabi rather than hard copy.

The Rules Committee will continue to update the rules and to clarify the process for running the meetings of the Faculty-at-Large. They will also continue discussions of possibly forming a new academic committee for the Senate.

The Welfare Committee will be working with the Provost and others to develop procedures and rules for a faculty recognition program. They will also continue to review the role of coordinators, tenure clock suspension in extraordinary circumstances, a mentoring program for all new faculty in the colleges and will consider whether or not to create a position for an EKU Faculty Ombuds person.

Student Affairs Update. Vice President Conneely stated that the parking transportation proposed master plan is still available online and comments can be sent directly to him or Mark Jozefowicz.

Following is a list of Student Affairs’ events and activities that plan to donate any proceeds to Hurricane Katrina victims.

- Several areas are working on an on-going book drive to donate books to the victims of Hurricane Katrina
- The Residence Life Council is sponsoring a sleepout at EKU’s track for the homeless beginning this Friday at 6 pm. and finishing on Saturday at 10 a.m.
• Greek Life is doing a benefits concert at 8 p.m. on September 19 with local talent. Greek Life has also set up donation tables at the Powell Plaza.
• Dining Services is conducting a "donate a meal" program this Wednesday.
• The EKU bookstore will give $300 for books and supplies to those students who are enrolled and affected by Hurricane Katrina.

The United Way Campaign is underway. Eastern’s contribution goal this year is $30,000.

Vice President Conneely thanked everyone who participated in student move-in day. There were over 400 volunteers from faculty, staff, retirees, alumni, and students who assisted with the move in efforts.

Lisa Crowe reported that thanks to an increased percentage of early text book adoption forms in May, the bookstore was able to buy books back from students at a higher rate. At the start of classes 98% of all textbook adoptions had been received.

REPORT FROM FACULTY REGENT: Senator Schlomann
Senator Schlomann reported that members of the Board attended the May 22-23 Institute for Effective Governance. The theme was "Stewards of Place".

On June 25 there was an extra Board meeting to finalize the budget. There were a number of changes to the budget which resulted in shifting more monies into academics. One consequence of doing so is that the salary equity proposal could be addressed in one year rather than two years.

The other issue discussed at the June 25th meeting was the President's salary. The President received the same across-the-board salary as everyone else. However, there were changes made in how the salary is structured. Last year the Foundation gave the President a supplement of $40,000. Because of concerns about governance issues, this year the Board decided to consolidate the entire salary to come out of the general fund. Also, after the President’s first four years is completed at the end of October, there will be a one time addition of the amount which typically goes into deferred compensation to her base salary and no more additional monies placed in deferred compensation. The Board decided to postpone discussion on an additional salary supplement for the President until after the evaluation process is completed. The Board is in the process of negotiations with an outside consultant to assist with the evaluation process. This has not been finalized at this point.

This weekend the Board will be attending the Governor's Conference on Effective Governance. The theme is "Getting to Yes: Answering the Five Questions."

The next meeting will be October 5. At that meeting two new Board members will be introduced--the new student regent and John Bizzack, replacement for Fred Rice. All new officers will be elected at the October meeting.
REPORT FROM COSFL: Senator Siegel reported for Senator Ware
Senator Siegel reported that COSFL met on Monday, August 15. Jim Applegate gave an update on recent CPE activities.

REPORT FROM THE PROVOST: Senator Chapman
One of the new budget items approved this year was the $500 per faculty member for professional development. The Provost’s Office is currently updating the FTE information for each college. That process should be completed soon and the funds should be dispersed within the next couple of weeks.

Another $250,000 was set aside to create a new faculty recognition program. Senator Chapman will be working closely with the Welfare committee to develop this process.

Thanks to President Glasser’s urging, the Board approved $1 million to complete the salary equity process this year.

Senator Chapman stated that while we are helping to accommodate those students affected by Katrina financially, in light of everything that has happened they may also need additional assistance academically. Please notify the administration if you feel these students need extra assistance.

Dr. Aaron Thompson is now the Associate Vice President for University Programs. He is also still the administrator for Enrollment Management until an Assistant Vice President is hired for that area.

Dr. E.J. Keeley has returned to Eastern as Executive Director for Institutional Effectiveness and Research.

Dr. Gerald Pogatshnik is the Associate Vice President for Research and Dean of the Graduate School.

Searches will be initiated in the near future for the vacant positions in Information Technology, Education and Libraries.

The Strategic plan should be completed by October 2. A copy will be sent to everyone for their review.

SACS preparation is progressing nicely. Eastern’s new SACS representative, Mike Johnson, will be visiting the campus on October 31 to meet with the Compliance Committee and the QEP Committee.
Onda Bennett reported that 418 QEP-theme surveys were completed as of last Friday, and she thanked all those who participated. A QEP discussion board has been established for those who would like to provide additional input.

REPORT FROM STUDENT GOVERNMENT: Kyle Moon
The “Colonel Spirit Challenge” will continue this year.

Student Government worked over the summer with Student Affairs on finalizing plans for the former Bowling Alley space in the Powell basement and for the "Target Vision" project.

On September 27 the Senate will be doing appropriations for student organizations.

In the near future, Student Government hopes to schedule a VP forum dealing with advising.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Anyone interested in serving on this committee should contact Senator Siegel.

Senator Jones moved to postpone the lectureship motion until a new proposal is presented to the Faculty Senate, seconded by Senator Johnson. The Senate were in agreement and the motion carried. Senator Siegel stated that a proposal from the Ad Hoc Committee should be brought to the Senate by the November meeting.

Motion on Summer Teaching Salaries. The friendly amended motion reads as follows:

Summer school salaries should be adjusted to 3 1/3% of the base salary for nine month, full time tenure track or tenured faculty for each 1 credit hour taught or equivalent. No salary cap should be applied. No more than 9 credit hours, or equivalent, can be taught during the entire summer.

Motion on Promotion and Tenure. Senator Kristofik moved that the Faculty Senate accept the University Ad Hoc Committee's report and recommendations for changing promotion and tenure policy and procedure, seconded by Senator Konkel. Senator Siegel declared the motion substantive and postponed the vote to the October meeting.

Meeting Time Extension. Senator Konkel moved, seconded by Senator Randles, to extend the meeting time beyond 5:30 p.m. The Senate were in agreement and the motion carried.
FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER:

The topic of discussion was “Strategies for Making Faculty Advising of Students More Efficient and Effective”.

Senator Marchant suggested that it would be helpful to see a final report from the committee that worked on the advising survey last year. Senator Siegel stated that the final report was tabled until the new director of Advising was hired.

Senator Dieckmann read a prepared statement relating to advising and retention of students. At the request of several Senators, the statement will be placed on the Senate website under the "miscellaneous items" section.

Senator Yoder reminded everyone that developmental students are required to remain as undeclared majors until the deficiency requirements are met. So to compare the graduation rate within declared and undeclared majors isn’t fair.

Senator A. Chapman mentioned that the advising process should be reviewed for graduate advising as well as undergraduate advising because there are different situations for each.

Senator Hubbard reported that those teaching during the summer have the additional burden of advising students for all faculty who are not around during the summer. She mentioned that this burden often falls to the coordinators in departments during the summer.

Senator Siegel announced that this topic will be considered again at the next Senate meeting.

ADJOURNMENT:

Senator Chapman moved to adjourn at approximately 5:45 p.m.
MEMORANDUM

TO: All Senators
FR: Carolyn F. Siegel, FS Chair
RE: Report of the Meeting of the FS Executive Committee on 9/19/05
DATE: 23 September 2005

Because the EKU Senate only meets from 3:30 pm to 5:30 pm, we must begin limiting the length of oral reports in order to allow time to address important issues that require input from all Senators. This applies to agenda regulars as well as guests. We will begin with a voluntary 5-minute time limit on reports and see how that works. Anyone who is regularly on the agenda is encouraged to send a written report to Senate Secretary Pauletta King for distribution to the Senate along with the call to the meeting. Senators are urged/implored/begged to read these reports in advance of the meeting so they can ask questions and/or add comments at the meeting.

Therefore, in the spirit of brevity, this written report is offered in lieu of making a detailed oral report at the next Senate meeting. If you have questions or comments about this report, they can be made during the October 3rd meeting, by email (Carolyn.siegel@eku.edu), or phone (2-4973). I am always happy to chat over coffee in JavaCity Library, schedules permitting.

At our regular Senate meeting on October 3rd we will continue our discussion of academic advising. On November 7th our discussion topic will be “Strategies for Streamlining Faculty Senate Meetings” and the December 5th issue is “Strategies to Revitalize the Faculty Club.” Please discuss these issues with your department faculty and bring comments to the Senate. We will need topics for the Spring 2006 Semester, so please be thinking about discussion issues For the Good of the Order.

The Executive Committee met September 19, 2005 and began with a warm welcome to Senator Kristofik, the newest elected member. Note: Because the Executive Committee meeting was held on the 19th, several updates were made to this report to reflect subsequent events.

* The Ad Hoc Committee on Lectureships has been formed and is composed of the Provost, Senate Chair, and Senators Hubbard (Special Ed), McKenney (Library and AAUP), Mike Hesse (Com). Once a draft proposal is ready, Ad Hoc Committee members will meet with the chairs of departments with the largest number of such positions to solicit their reactions. It is anticipated that a proposal on alternate faculty employment series will be brought to the Senate in November.

* Although the Board of Regent’s intentions about the President’s evaluation continue to be unclear, the Faculty Senate Executive Committee is proceeding with its plans to achieve a November completion deadline. On September 26th a meeting was held with the consultants who (it is expected) will be hired by the Board to conduct the evaluation. The consultants will collect faculty evaluation responses on a secure external Website and the Executive Committee will tabulate and evaluate the responses, and write a final report for the Board. All eligible full-time tenured and tenure-track EKU faculty members (over 530) are to participate in the evaluation.

The next item of business was to hear from Senate Standing Committee liaisons. Most of their comments will be included in reports from the respective Committee chairs. The Senate’s first ever New Senator Orientation is scheduled for September 29, 2005 from noon until 2 pm in the Regent’s Dining Room. Senators Robles, Ware, and Randles have an interesting and informative session planned. Many thanks to these Senators for their efforts in developing the orientation and preparing materials.
University Committee liaisons reported that most University Committees have not yet met. Senator Flanagan updated the Committee on the continuing saga of Arlington’s effort to upgrade facilities, which will result in an increase in dues that may make it extremely difficult for many faculty to afford a membership. This is particularly troubling since Arlington is a faculty/staff/alumni enterprise. Senator Hubbard reported that the GenEd Committee continues to meet weekly and anticipates a rush of course applications in the very near future.

The meeting continued with the FS Chair’s report. The FS Chair met with the Chairs Association to emphasize (a) the importance of reviewing the proposed P&T revisions and encouraging their department faculty to communicate approval/disapproval to their Senator prior to the October 3rd meeting; (b) the responsibility of chairs to encourage effective communication between their faculty and the Senate because faculty who are not informed about Senate business are disenfranchised; (c) that all eligible full-time tenured and tenure-track faculty will be asked to participate in the faculty evaluation of the President; and (d) that the Senate has become very proactive, and will debate and act on a broad range of important faculty issues this academic year.

The first Faculty Coffee Chat with the President, Provost, Faculty Regent and Senate Chair was September 22nd and a chatty group of faculty attended this most cordial session. The next Coffee Chat with the President will be October 27th from 8 to 9 am in the Faculty Club Lounge, Keen Johnson.

Senate will resume Meet and Greet sessions for one hour before each regularly scheduled Senate meeting. Please come for an informal social hour from 2:30 to 3:30 pm in the Faculty Club Lounge on October 3rd. Schedules permitting, we will be joined by the President, Provost, and Faculty Regent for informal discussions and Q&A sessions.

The Senate will collaborate with the Teaching and Learning Center to sponsor a “Discussion on Shared Governance,” 3:30 to 4:30 pm, October 18 and 19, Faculty Club, Keen Johnson. Come prepared for what promises to be a thought-provoking discussion.

The FS Chair met with the Faculty Club Board of Governors and encouraged strong ties between the two entities. Senate will have a discussion of the role of the Faculty Club as a preliminary to developing a campus wide survey on the same topic. Faculty Club events will be scheduled based on preferences expressed in the Senate discussion and subsequent survey. Efforts are underway to replace the dilapidated furniture in the Club.

The meeting concluded with a report from the Faculty Regent, Senator Schlomann and Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management Thompson, substituting for the Provost who was off campus. The last item of business was to finalize the agenda for the October 3rd Senate meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Siegel, Senate Chair

Re: Regent’s Report

Board Members attended the 2005 Governor’s Conference on Postsecondary Education Trusteeship in Louisville September 18-19. The Theme was “Getting to Yes…Answering the Five Questions”. Because of my class schedule, I was only able to attend the Sunday sessions. This included some relatively informative reports to the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education (SCOPE). Brad Cowgill, state Budget Director, reported on the status and projections for the state budget. While revenue has increased and is projected to continue that way, he indicated that, without modifications, expenditures from Medicaid will be greater than any revenue increases. At present, Medicaid is approximately 10% of the total budget. Projections are that without changes that will increase to 20% by 2010. With that scenario, limited, if any, monies will be available for increases to higher education.

There was also a report (report can be accessed from the minutes of the CPE meeting that day--http://cpe.ky.gov/about/cpe/meetings/20050918.htm) on affordability of higher education to SCOPE. Minnesota’s Design for Shared Responsibility was presented as a model for a rational approach to affordability. It establishes guidelines for how much the state, student and family share in the cost of education. By placing caps on the student and family burden, the state is motivated to keep control on tuition increases in order to prevent its burden from becoming too large. The report also included data on the distribution of burden among different student subpopulations. Affordability issues had the greatest negative impact on independent, low income adult students. African American students are at greater financial risk than other ethnic/racial groups.

The day concluded with a dinner meeting during which Charlie Sweet received the Acorn Award. EKU faculty have included three of the eleven recipients of this prestigious teaching award. Charlie deserves our congratulations! The dinner speaker, Dr. Calvin Mackie, gave an inspirational speech on helping our young, especially those who appear to be at risk, to dream dreams and to actualize them.

The Board of Regents will be meeting October 5. In preparation for this meeting several of its committees are meeting: Student Life, Discipline and Athletics on September 21, Internal Affairs on September 28, Finance on October 4, and the Executive and Academic Affairs early on October 5. I chair the Student Life Committee, sit on the Internal Affairs and Executive Committees and attend the Finance Committee. The Student Life Committee heard reports on the NCAA recertification process, the transition to non-smoking residence halls, and the scholarship and financial aid plan. It also made a recommendation to support amending the campus resident requirement (additional option of four semesters meeting the residency requirement). Information about the other committee meetings and the Board meeting will come at the next Senate meeting.

Please feel free to contact me for further information about any of these items or to discuss topics of concern to you!
