RE: Credit-by-examination Proposal for the Council of Academic Affairs

Students can demonstrate competence attained through educational experiences other than university instruction by means of exams such as departmental exams and CLEP® tests. The following proposals are a result of departmental requests for additions and removals for credit through the credit-by-examination process.

The Office of Academic Testing submits the attached lists which include the revisions listed below.

Departmental Credit-by-Examination (CBE) changes:

- Removal of BIO 100, 171, 301, and 303 exams
- Removal of NSC 330 exam
- Removal of HSA 305 and 314 exams
- Addition of an examination for CON 121

CLEP® changes:

- The Principles of Accounting examination was renamed Financial Accounting and receives credit for ACC 201.
