

Graduate Faculty Criteria comparisons (Summary)

	Current	New Proposal
Levels	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Instruction 2. Associate 3. Full 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Clinical/Practitioner 2. Adjunct 3. Associate 4. Full
Responsibilities	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Instruction: May be allowed to serve on a limited number of graduate committees subject to the approval of the Graduate Council 2. Associate: May serve on Graduate Advisory or Graduate Examination Committees, but not chair the committees 3. Full: May serve on Graduate Advisory or Graduate Examination Committees, and chair the committees 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Clinical/Practitioner: May teach graduate courses and serve as a member of the Comprehensive Examination or thesis committees as related to the area of clinical licensure/certification expertise. 2. Adjunct: Faculty from an outside institution who may have “Associate” or “Full” status responsibilities according to their credentials. 3. Associate: May teach graduate courses; serve on the Graduate Council; serve on Comprehensive/Qualifying Examinations, Thesis, and Dissertation Committees for students pursuing masters, specialist and doctoral degrees. In order to chair Examinations or Thesis Committees, the applicant must either (a) have previous experience on such committees or (b) be mentored by a member of the graduate faculty who has successfully chaired thesis or dissertation committees in the past. May co-chair dissertation committees with another faculty who has Full Graduate Faculty status. 4. Full: May teach graduate courses; serve on the Graduate Council; serve on and Chair Comprehensive/Qualifying Examination, Thesis, and Dissertation Committees for students pursuing masters, specialist, and doctoral degrees.
Duration of the status	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Instruction: One semester, additional semesters could be requested on the same form 2. Associate: No limit (Renewal of the status is not required) 3. Full: Five years. This status must be renewed every five years 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Clinical/Practitioner: Must be renewed every five years. 2. Associate: Must be renewed every five years. 3. Full: Must be renewed every five years unless the faculty member has Professor Rank in which case the Full Graduate Faculty status will be permanent.