

Motion approved by the Faculty Senate at the 04-03-06 meeting

(Senator Schlomann moved approval of the amendment, seconded by Senator Johnson at the March 2006 meeting. Motion was postponed for further discussion until the 04-03-06 meeting.)

MOTION:

Under Part I, Section A, add number five, to read as follows: If all recommendations are positive, the sequence of reviews of all applications for promotion and tenure are as follows: Department committee, Department chair, College Promotion and Tenure Committee, Dean, Provost, President, and Board of Regents.

If a candidate is not recommended for tenure by the Department committee, Department chair, College Promotion and Tenure Committee, or Dean, the application review process will include the University Promotion and Tenure Committee prior to being forwarded to the Provost.

If a candidate is not recommended for promotion by the Department committee, Department chair, College Promotion and Tenure Committee, or Dean, the application shall not be considered further, unless the candidate appeals to the next level. If the candidate does appeal, the sequence of the process shall follow that stated in b.
