Politics of Religion and the Myanmar Democracy Movement

by Guest Speaker David Moe

Join us for a fascinating lecture on the Myanmar military coup, which overturned the November 2020 election and detained Aung San Suu Kyi (national icon of democracy and Nobel Peace Prize Winner), and the rising democratic movement courageously being led by young people from different religious and ethnic backgrounds.

September 14th at 6:30 PM in Whitlock's
O'Donnell Auditorium

David Moe is a Ph.D candidate at Asbury Theological Seminary, USA (originally from Mindat, Chin State of Myanmar currently under martial law). His research focuses on the politics of religious nationalism, ethnic identity conflict, public theology of religions, liberation, and reconciliation in Southeast Asia
