

EKU's 20th Annual James McChesney Memorial Golf Classic 2021 Sponsor Information

The Department of Recreation and Park Administration at Eastern Kentucky University is delivering the 20th annual James McChesney Memorial Golf Classic in order to raise scholarship funds for community-service oriented students. Dr. McChesney was the former chair of this department, and his tenure was characterized by service to this community, the Commonwealth and country. Not only was he a combat veteran of the Korean War, but in his professional career Dr. McChesney served many communities in planning recreation facilities and parks as well as training many professionals in the delivery of these important services. As a result of the Classic, the scholarship award has increased over 1,685 percent! The 2021 tournament is slated for April 23 at The University Club at Arlington in Richmond, Kentucky.
